Welcome!

We welcome our visitors who are attending the Divine Liturgy at St. John's parish, and we pray that your participation has been enriched through word and worship. Please sign the Guest Book at either of the entrances to the Sanctuary.

We invite those visitors who are baptized and/or confirmed in the Armenian Church or are members of a church which is in communion with the Armenian Church to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion. If you are a member of the Armenian Church and a newcomer to our community and would like information about our Christian Education program or any of our parish auxiliary groups, please call our office and we will be happy to respond to your questions. The Lord Jesus Christ loves you and desires that you share His love with others, making this holy community your spiritual home.

TODAY'S GOSPEL: LUKE 13-1-9

There were some present at that very time who told him of the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And he answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered thus? I tell you. No; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish. Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others who dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you. No; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish." And he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. And he said to the vinedresser, 'Lo, these three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down; why should it use up the ground?' And he answered him, 'Let it alone, sir, this year also, till I dig about it and put on manure. And if it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

CHRISTMAS TRIVIA

As we enter the period of Advent, here are a few bits of trivia:

- In 320 A.D. Ope Julius I and other religious leaders specified December 25 as the official date of the birth of Jesus Christ.
- In 1643, the British Parliament officially abolished the celebration of Christmas.

WHEN SHOULD WE MAKE THE SIGN OF THE CROSS?

Making the sign of the cross is a way to pray in gesture. When we make the sign of the cross we imprint on ourselves the sign of God's love for His creatures. We claim for ourselves the power of Christ's crucifixion to give us eternal life with God, and we profess our faith in Him.

It is customary to make the sign of the cross at the following times:

- When entering or leaving the church
- When walking in front of the holy altar
- Whenever the priest blesses us with the words, Khaghaghootyoon amenetsoon [Peace to All]
- At the end of prayers when we say Amen
- When bowing at Asdoodzo Yegrbakestsook [Let us bow down to God]
- When kissing/venerating the Holy Cross, the gospel book and other sacred objects
- When the Gospel is chanted, at the beginning and end of the reading
- When certain words of Jesus are quoted, such as: Arek Gerek. Ays eh mar-meen eem [Take, eat, this is my body...]
- Whenever the Holy Trinity is invoked and praised, as when the priest chants Orhnyal Hayr Soorp Asdvadz jushmareed...Orhnyal Vortet Soorp Asdvadz Jushmareed... {Blessed is the Holy Father, true God...Blessed is the Holy Son, true God...}
- In private prayer, one may make the sign of the cross freely as a ritual expression of faith in Christ, gratitude or supplication.

YOU CAN HELP BRING THE LIGHT OF CHRIST!

During this past summer, the youth of our parish returned from the St. Nersess Summer Conferences with a special hand-painted donation box for the ongoing work at the Seminary where the future priests and Christian educators for the Armenian Church in America are trained. When Father Stepanos visited our parish, he spoke about the need for continued support for St. Nersess. He noted the presence of this red, blue and orange box that now is placed on the candle table in our lobby and that your donations, no matter how great or humble, can make a difference. Every week when you purchase a candle or two, don't forget St. Nersess Seminary in your spiritual prayers and with your donations as well. Make a gift that will keep alive and bright the light of Christ in our Church, in our parishes, and in our homes.
